

Langmusi (Photo by Kit Chan)

Day 5 Langmusi: We have a full day visiting the two Tibetan monasteries, and wander about the pretty villages. There are numerous trekking possibilities and we have the services of local Tibetans to take the group around this very untouristic area of Gansu. O/N Langmusi.

Day 6 Langmusi/Ruoergai (160km 6hr): After breakfast, we drive to visit the First Bend of the Yellow River. The 80 km road from Langmusi to this First Bend is in poor condition and takes about 3 hrs of hard driving. From here it is another 4 hrs to Zoige. ON Zoige (Ruoergai).

Day 7 Ruoergai/Jiuzhaigou (206km 6hr+): We will all the way to Jiuzhaigou. ON Jiuzhaigou (Zhachang town)

1st Bend of Huanghe river & Huanglong (photo by Kit Chan)

Day 8 Jiuzhaigou : We have a full day to explore and appreciate one of China's most beautiful national parks. We visit the numerous lakes. The park is a huge area of gorgeous alpine valley studded with dazzling turquoise lakes and surrounded by snowy peaks. Shuttle bus services take visitors around but many choose to walk/trek along the walkways and paths running alongside the rivers. There are basically two routes covering Jiuzhaigou and we will do certain selective scenic spot. ON Jiuzhaigou.

Jiuzhaigou stunning View

Day 9 Huanglong(100km 3hr): We bus 3hr to Huanglong, translated Yellow Dragon, another beautiful park studded with waterfalls and travertine ponds of blue, yellow, white and green. The top temple is 7.5 km from the entrance and has the most beautiful pools. Cable cars are available for visitors to get quickly to the top. Then drive to Songpan. ON Songpan.

Way to Langmusi/ Jiuzhaigou

Tibetan/Hui People along the journey (photo by Kit Chan)

Day 10 Songpan/Bipenggou Valley : Morning free & easy hang around the Ancient Songpan town and take a walk in the city. Afternoon drive to Bipenggou Valley. O/N Bipenggou Valley.

Day 11 Back Chengdu : Morning walk around Bipenggou Valley, afternoon bus back to Chengdu (225km 2hr20m). O/N Chengdu.

Day 12 Chengdu : We will visit Giant Panda Breeding Research Center, which has been created and imitates the pandas' natural habitat in order that they can have the best possible environment for rearing and breeding.; Also will visit Wuhou Temple, built in memory of Zhugeliang, Prime minister of the Shushan State during the three kingdoms period in the 3rd century (220-280). Places can be visit like Wide Narrow alley & Chun Xi road. ON Chengdu.

Day 13 Chengdu Fly Home : Take noon flight CZ3402 at 1235PM to Guangzhou (Reached 1450PM). Then take CZ365 at 1725PM fly back to KL. Reached KL 2150PM (5Nov2025)

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Cost cover accommodation, transport, breakfast except Langmusi, Songpan & Jiuzhaigou.
2. Accommodations will be in budget to mid-range hotels/guesthouse..
3. Not covered are flight ticket KL-Lanzhou-Chengdu (appx RM3200), airport taxes (RM300), visa fees (waive for 15days), meals (Rm50 x 10 days = Rm500) and entrance fees (approximately Rm650). Note that entrance fees are HIGH in China, some which are mentioned in the itinerary above.
4. Note we do not collect up front compulsory tips nor do we bring our groups for "compulsory" shopping stops. Members will decide the tips based on their satisfaction of the guide services.

5. Cost is subject to change depending on fluctuations in exchange rates and/or airfares.
6. Non-refundable deposit of Rm1600 will be payable to confirm your place.

Email rachelheng123@gmail.com or yongo123@gmail.com

Phone Rachel 012-352 0868

Phone Lee Min: 016-220 9033 or 603-40316225