Uyuni Laguna Canapa/ Group Photo at Salar Uyuni (Salt Plains)/ Flamingo

Day 4 Fly to Cusco We fly to Cuzco in the morning, the flight taking 1hr 15min. We transfer to our hostel (Spanish for guesthouse) located a short walk from the main Town Square. We first visit the Bolivia Consular for visa application before free rest of day. Cusco Cathedral is reputed to be Peru's best with grand paintings and decor. Cuzco Boleto Turistico or Cuzco Tourist Ticket 130soles included in trip price. ON Cuzco.

Day 5 Inca ruins Cuzco. We hire transport for a half-day visit to four sets of Inca ruins in the vicinity of Cuzco. The first and largest is Sacsayhuaman (commonly pronounced as Sexy Woman), sited on top of a hill overlooking Cuzco. The site was also a great place for scenic photos of Cuzco. The next set of ruins is the rather small Tambo Machay, a ceremonial royal bath. And nearby is another small fortress called Puca Pucara or Red Fort, believed to be the gateway to Sacsayhuaman. The last stop is Qenko translated zigzag - where ritual practices took place. The rest of the day is free to explore or take it easy. All these entrances are included in the Cuzco Boleto Turistico. ON Cuzco.

Day 6 Chincero Sunday Market & Maras Salt Pans Early start to Chincero Village, a typical Andean village for its less touristic and colourful Sunday Market. Goods are better priced here and much of the money goes directly to the villagers who make them. We then visit the 700m long salt pans of Maras, which for centuries, have been producing salt. Finally to Ollantaytambo ruins - said to be the biggest pueblo (town) in the Inca empire at one time. From here we board the 436pm Turista train to Aguas Calientes, the town at the bottom of Machu Picchu, arriving at 609pm. ON Aguas Calientes.

Day 7 Machu Picchu Start at 6am with a 25min bus ride up to Machu Picchu. Entrance fee Rm200 (includes Huayna Picchu fees) is included. We engage a professional guide for Machu Picchu which means small mountain, who will take the group to the various viewpoints. The usual places of visit are the farm terraces, Main Square, Temple of the Sun, Temple of Condor and the residential areas. The city was abandoned for unknown reasons and was not "harmed" by the Spanish as most of the buildings are original. The guide spends 4 hr with the group. Then it is free time to explore the ruins. Recommended is a 1 hr walk/trek/climb up Huayna Pichhu translated big mountain, for amazing top-down views of Machu Picchu as well as the high ruins and temples located on top of Huayna Pichhu. Those who are less physically inclined can walk the gentle Inca trail to the Sun Gate for alternative views of Machu Picchu. We late lunch in Aguas Calientes before taking the Turista train 412pm-550pm to Ollantaytambo, where a bus takes us to Cusco 89km 2hr. ON Cusco.
